GAZETTE CLEANINGS.

Native hay, in bales, is selling in the city at from $21 to $22 per ton.

The good work of extinguishing worthless canines was begun in East Vegas yesterday.

We learn that a "fisticuff jamboree" occurred at a dance hall in town Monday night. No serious damage done.

Probate Court, Judge Lorenzo Lopez presiding, is in session this week. There is considerable business before the court this term.

The news of Indian raids in the south has induced Surveyor General H. M. Atkinson to order his surveying parties in southern New Mexico to discontinue their work and seek points of safety.

J. A. Gleitzman has opened up a boarding and lodging house in the building adjoining Maier's meat market. He proposes to keep a good place to stop at and set a first-class table. It is convenient to the plaza.

A number of large wagons heavily loaded with supplies for White Oaks went out this morning. The enterprising business men of the Oaks buy their supplies where they can get the best rates, and the best roads for transportation.

Chief Engineer Robinson and the new Supt. Seely and Leach returned from their tour of inspection of the line south of Las Vegas early yesterday morning. They leave again to-day by special train to inspect the road east to the Colorado line.

Messrs. Roberts & Wheelock, tinners, plumbers and gas fitters of this city have secured the contract for fitting and plumbing the new hotel and bath house in process of construction at the Jemez Hot Springs in Bernalillo county. It is a pretty big job.

Bell & Co., the plaza grocers, report business steadily improving. A few weeks ago times were quiet, but now trade has set in brisker than ever, and they are kept constantly busy waiting on customers. The outlook for fall and winter trade they pronounce decidedly encouraging.

Hugh Pritchard was removed from the Summer House yesterday to Marwede's new building on the west side. His physicians thought he was not doing as well yesterday evening as might be expected, but attributed the temporary back-set to the fatigue incident to being removed.

Mr. Hart, superintendent of the Gas and Coke Company, will commence laying a gas main from the plaza on the street as far west as the Catholic church. He will also lay a main north from the plaza to the livery stable and one from the plaza to the court house.

Col. Thomas H. Hopkins died at his residence near Santa Fe on last Saturday, at the advanced age of seventy years. He was at one time private secretary to President Polk, and afterward resident agent of the Post Office Department besides holding at different times various federal offices in Tennessee and Mississippi.

Dr. C. C. Gordon was telegraphed to go to Raton as soon as possible to assist in the care of a man who had the misfortune to be badly mangled in the coal-burning. The surgeons are deliberating whether to take off his leg or not, but beyond that we have received no positive intelligence of the extent of his injuries nor his name.

A meeting of the Presbyterian congregation was to have been held on Monday evening for the election of trustees for the ensuing church year, but the storm prevented the gathering. The meeting is called for to-night to be held at the church on the West side, at 7:30 o'clock. A report of the trustees will be made. All persons interested should attend.

Mr. J. J. Fitzgerald, the live real estate man of Las Vegas, tells us that business in his line just now is booming. He made two transfers of valuable property at round figures yesterday and one this morning by breakfast time. There are now in the city a number of parties who come here to buy property and each their lot with us. We bid all such a cordial welcome.

A shooting scrape occurred at San Marcial on the night of the 2nd inst., between a squad of soldiers on one side and citizens of the town on the other. The front of Lockwood's saloon seems to have sustained the principal damage, as it was riddled with bullets, and no one was hurt. They certainly need some target practice down that way. Our juveniles can distance all such shooting as that.

George H. Sweet Esq., editor of the Texas Journal of Commerce of Galveston, has returned home after visiting Santa Fe and Albuquerque. After seeing this much of the Territory, he still avers that Las Vegas is the coming metropolis. Strange to say, he saw much to like about Santa Fe but considers that Las Vegas and even Santa Fe are infinitely better towns than Albuquerque. He is returning home to agitate the extension of the Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe R. R. to this Territory, and to work to that end. He predicts that not many months well elapse before this project is consummated.

Mrs. Leslie Coming.

We were pleased to receive a visit on Thursday, from Mr. E. Conklin, who has for many years, been attached to Frank Leslie's publications. Mr. Conklin is on a tour through Arizona, and will probably remain in the Territory during the winter. There will shortly arrive Mrs. Leslie and a party of tourists who have arranged for extended observations throughout this section of country.—Yuma Free Press.

It having been stated that Mrs. Frank Leslie had postponed her trip to New Mexico and Arizona, we were surprised to see statements similar to the above published in the Arizona and California papers. But a note from Mr. Conklin states, that he has been recently engaged in his project, and that the trip has not been abandoned and is not likely to be postponed, provided sufficient encouragement be given in New Mexico. We are heartily glad that the project will soon be carried out. Under ordinary circumstances, it would be an excellent way to advertise this country, as was the case in Frank Leslie's trans-continental tour a few years ago, which his widow, and business successor is to pattern after. The fact that the publisher of so many publications, accompanied by a corps of artists and journalists, should make a tour of the Territory would be an item of interest to the public generally. But what will be written and published in the Illustrated Newspaper and the other publications, and the sketches of New Mexico would be of incalculable worth to us. But just now when the public mind is filled with visions of marauding and massacring Indians running at large over the entire Territory, it might be an opportune time to convince the people through some such medium as any one of those we have mentioned, that we have a rich and beautiful country that it is the duty of Congress to protect. We may gain an earlier hearing of our case by encouraging Mrs. Leslie's coming. By the scheme, the citizens are called upon to purchase space in the Illustrated Newspaper to be devoted to a description of a particular portion of New Mexico, its resources, advantages, etc. We have faith to believe that the citizens of Las Vegas will exhibit the requisite encouragement in a material form.

El Paso Embellisher.

Marshal Franklin nabbed an alleged El Paso embezzler on the Atlantic express on its arrival in this city early yesterday morning. He had been previously notified by telegraph of the flight of the man, and armed with a description was on hand to take him in and earn the $50 reward offered for his capture. The prisoner is now in jail awaiting the arrival of El Paso officers. It is charged that the man now in custody, Harry Sellers, who was employed by the firm of McKinney & Co., collected about $900 from their customers and skipped out without accounting for the money. When arrested he had $600 on his person. He complained very bitterly of his ill fortune, and stoutly maintains that he is unjustly accused. He claims that he is a senior member of the firm on whose order he is held. There is evidently something crooked somewhere about it all, but just where time must decide. Sellers is a young fellow about twenty-four years of age, originally from New York, who went to El Paso last fall. He was on his way to the great metropolis when he took in New Mexico's metropolis against his will and wishes.

A shooting scrape occurred in an Albuquerque dance hall Saturday night, in which a Mexican named Salvador Candulano was fatally, and Edward R. Lewis, one of the owners of the dive, was seriously shot. The row commenced by Lewis interfering with two Mexicans who were trying to induce a woman to leave the hall with them. Lewis drew his pistol and raised it to strike the Mexican over the head; while in this position the Mexican shot him through the body, and after he had fallen to the floor he raised himself on his elbow and fired three shots, all of which struck the Mexican in the breast, killing him instantly. No inquest was held upon the body. Lewis is under arrest, and will have his preliminary examination as soon as his wound will permit.

New Church.

The Baptist Society of this city is making preparations to build a new church. The church is to cost five or six thousand dollars and if built according to a sketch shown us yesterday it will be one of the best and most convenient church buildings in the Territory. It is hoped this improvement will be pushed right along, as it is needed for the growing Baptist organization of this city and will be an adornment to Las Vegas. There cannot be too many improvements of this kind.

On account of the wreck just above Watrous the Atlantic express of Monday, that arrived here at an early hour yesterday morning, was tied up here all day yesterday. Yesterday's Atlantic express reached here an hour and a half late and was tied up till 7 o'clock. Both trains went east at that time as two sections of No. 104 and had orders to lay by at Watrous till the track was cleared. The Pacific express left La Junta seven hours late yesterday morning, and was obliged to wait till the wreck on Mora river was cleared up, and did not reach here till early this morning.

Mr. Page has many friends in Las Vegas, and they will be glad to learn of his intention to settle here permanently.

Zion Hollow.

Scene—a street car. While a lady and gentleman were enjoying a le-té-tele the car passed the new Presbyterian church now finishing, and the conversation naturally drifted to a discussion of that edifice, as to its architectural beauty, location, etc.

"I suppose," remarked the gentleman, "that this part of town," waving his hand in the direction of the sea of sundowners, "will be called Zion's Hollow, to distinguish the locality from Zion's Hill."

Lady—"Very likely. I see they have got the sign out already," making a reverential curtsy towards the undedicated Gospel house.

The passengers all laughed. Sabe?

A Buffalo Hunt.

F. M. Page, formerly with A. Grzelachowski at Puerta de Luna has taken a position with Brown & Manzanares. He is just up from Puerto de Luna and states that a party of Mexicans, good men, are getting ready to go on a buffalo hunt on the Staked Plains. They will start between the 15th and 20th of this month and anyone desiring to participate in hunting this noble game will have a good opportunity to go with the party.

It is reported that the people in the neighborhood of Puerto de Luna are very incensed at the verdict found against Marino Leiba or Leiva, who was up for trial at the recent term of court in this city on complaint of attempting to shoot Pat Garrett, Sheriff of Lincoln county. Leiba received only a small fine, and, were it not that there are other indictments to hold him, would probably now be at large. Some of the best citizens of the section mentioned state that they believe that were Leiba to return to that country he would be lynched.

Four notorious horse thieves were shot down in their tracks at Mesquite, a small station on the El Paso branch of the A. T. & S. F., on Saturday night. They belong to a gang who have been running off stock in that country for some time, and have stolen a number of head of horses in and around El Paso, a party of citizens went in pursuit, and shot them down. At last accounts their bodies were lying near the track in full view of the passengers on the branch line.
